Roc No. 1384/B.4/49. Dated 26-8-1949.

Sir,

Sub:- Jails - Establishment - Central Jail, Bellary - Appointment of a Reserve Deputy Jailor - Sanction - Requested.

The Superintendent, Central Jail, Bellary reports that the admissions of prisoners in his jail have increased since the committal of all prisoners including prohibition prisoners of Krishna and Guntur Districts in place of Kurnool and Anantapur Districts were ordered in G.O.No.Ms.176, Home dated 13-1-1949. Comparative statements showing the committal of prisoners during the period from January to May in the years 1948 and 1949 and the admissions and releases from January, 1949 to July, 1949 are enclosed for information.

2. This Jail has only one Reserve Deputy Jailor for interviews with which he is occupied throughout the day and he is unable to undertake the duties referred to in rule 171(2) of the Madras Prisons and Reformatory Manual, Volume II which are being done by th Deputy Jailor. After the issue of G.O.No.Ms.176,Home dated the 13-1-1949, referred to in para (1), the admissions and releases in this jail have increased considerably and the work of the Deputy Jailor has increased correspondingly. Further, the periodic transfer of prisoners to the Camp Jail, Kaggallu from this jail throws and additional burden on the Deputy Jailor. The Superintendent, therefore, requests that a Reserve Deputy Jailor may be appointed in his Jail immediately to cope with the increased work and undertake the duties prescribed in rule 171(2) of the Madras Prisons and Reformatory Manual, Volume II to relieve the Deputy Jailor.

3. I agree with the Superintendent, and request that the Government may be pleased to sanction urgently the appointment of a Reserve Deputy Jailor in the Central Jail, Bellary for a period of one year from the date of appointment or till the need for it ceases whichever is earlier.

4. The extra expenditure will be met from the sanctioned budget and by reappropriation, if necessary, later on.

Lt.Col.
INSPECTOR GENERAL OF PRISONS.

Jails - Establishment - C.J., Bellary - Temporary additional Reserve Deputy Jailer - Employment of.

From the I.G. of Prisons, R.O.C. 1384/B/4/49 dated 26/29-8-1949.

The I.G. of Prisons has proposed the employment of a temporary additional Reserve Deputy Jailer for a period of one year from the date of appointment or till the need for it ceases whichever is earlier, in the Central Jail, Bellary

2. In G.O. No.Ms. 176, Home dated 13-1-49 orders were issued accepting the proposals of the I.G. of Prisons regarding the committal of prisoners to the various jails in supersession of all previous orders on the subject. With reference to that G.O. prisoners sentenced to imprisonment exceeding one months in the districts of Bellary, Guntur and Krishna should be committed to the Central Jails Bellary. Besides, prisoners sentenced to death in the districts of Cuddapah, Kurnool and Anantapur and civil prisoners committed by courts in the districts of Bellary, Kurnool, Cuddapah, Anantapur and Chittoor were also ordered to be confined in the Central Jail, Bellary. According to G.O.No.Ms. 1565, Home dated 28-4-48 the Jail Dept. has to provide the P.W.D. with convict labour to the extent of 2000 convicts for excavation of canals in the Tungabhadra Project. The two jails at Bellary (viz. the Central Jail, Bellary and the Alipuram Jail) are the feeder jails to the camp jail at the canal site.

3. The I.G. has stated that in the C.J., Bellary there is only one Reserve Dy.Jailer who is occupied throughout the day with interviews and he is unable to undertake the other duties prescribed for Reserve Dy.Jailer in rule 171(2) of the M.R. and R. Manual Vol. II. These duties are now being done by the Dy.Jailer. The I.G. has stated that after the issue of the G.O. No.Ms.176 Home d/13-1-49 there has been considerable increase in the number of admissions and releases in the C.J., Bellary -(vide the statement at A on p.2 c/f) resulting in a corresponding increase in the work of the Deputy Jailer; that the periodic transfer of prisoners from the C.J., Bellary to the camp Jail, Kaggalu has also thrown additional burden on the Dy.Jailer and that the Supdt. has therefore requested that an addl. Reserve Dy.Jailer may be employed in the jail immediately to cope with the increased work and to undertake the duties prescribed in rule 171 (2) of the M.P. and R.Manual.Vol.II, to the relief of the Dy.Jailer who is now attending them.

4. The present strength of the Jail is 912 (as on 10-9-49) as against an available accommodation of 840. From the statement at A on p.2 c.f. relating to ~~accommodation~~ admissions and releases of prisoners during ~~1949~~ Jan to July 1949 it will be seen that there has been a general increase in the number of admissions and releases since the beginning of of this year and that in July 1949 there was a sharp increase particularly in the number of admission. It is, therefore, for orders whether in the circumstances stated by the I.G. of Prisons sanction may be accorded for the employment of an Addl.Reserve Dy.Jailer for a period of six months to start with instead of one year as proposed by the I.G. (The addl.expenditure involved will be Rs. 762/- for 6 months) If so, the draft order subd. is for approval. It may be sent to Finance for acceptance.
